

MSU COLLEGE OF LAW

LAW

MSU College of Law

500F Criminal Law

Fall, Spring. 3(3-0) R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 131

A study of the Criminal Justice System with an emphasis on defense counsel and prosecutor, adversary systems, ethics, criminal statutes, inchoate crimes and defenses.

500G Property

Fall, Spring, Summer. 4(4-0) R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 113

A survey of fundamental property law. The topics covered included possessory interests real and personal, findings, bailments, and adverse possession.

500M Business Enterprises

Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 409

This course focuses on agency, partnership, and closely-held corporations.

500N Constitutional Law II

Fall, Spring. 4(4-0) R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 172

A study of procedure and substantive due process, equal protection, Bill of Rights, and Freedom of Expression.

500P Evidence

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: DCL 220

Study of the principles of evidence under the Anglo-American system of jurisprudence.

500Q Professional Responsibility

Fall, Spring, Summer. 3(3-0) R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 260

This course explores the obligations owed by the lawyer, both individually, and as a member of the legal profession.

500R Torts I

Fall. 4(4-0) R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 141

This course examines the protection the law affords against interference by others with one's person, property, or intangible interest

500U Topics in Professional Responsibility

Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law.

Special topics in law.

501D Trusts and Estates

Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 210

A survey of practices for transmitting wealth in view of death.

501E Secured Transactions

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 240

Process of financing the sale of goods. Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code - Secured Transactions focus.

501F Sales and Leases

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530B R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: LAW 501C

Formation and terms, as well as breach, of contracts for sales of goods under Article 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code. Examines Article 2a's provision on leases. Comparisons between Article 2 of the Uniform Commercial Code and the United Nations Convention on the International Sale of Goods.

501G Payment Systems

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530B R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: LAW 501C

Negotiable instruments, bank deposits and collections, funds transfer, and letters of credit under the Uniform Commercial Code.

501J Secured Transactions and Practice

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500E R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 501E.

Examination of the intricacies of a secured transaction under the Revised Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

501K Basic Income Taxation

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 501A or LAW 501B.

Examination of technical federal income tax issues, including a focus on solving complex tax problems.

501M Commercial Transactions Survey

Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530B R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 501F or LAW 501G.

Survey of sales of goods and payment systems under the Uniform Commercial Code.

502 Accounting for Lawyers

Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 508

This course covers basic topics in accounting relevant to a business lawyer's practice.

504 Antitrust Law

Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 310

The study of how courts apply basic economic principles to business practice in a wide variety of industries.

505A Commercial Arbitration

Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 569

Philosophy of conflict between arbitration and dispute resolution.

505C Problem-Solving Approaches to Conflict Resolution

Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500A or LAW 500B R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 553

An interactive course covering alternative dispute resolution, negotiations, mediation, agreements to mediate, mediator liability, and professional responsibility.

505D Dispute Resolution in the Workplace

Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 598

Arbitration of disputes arising out of collective bargaining agreements.

505J Online Dispute Resolution

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.

Analyze online dispute resolution platforms and resolve simulated disputes.

506A Bankruptcy

Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 322 Not open to students with credit in LAW 506E or LAW 506F.

Survey of bankruptcy law, the bankruptcy code, and the creditor/debtor relationship.

506E Consumer Bankruptcy

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: LAW 506C Not open to students with credit in LAW 506A.

State law debt collection methods. Basic principles of federal bankruptcy law. Fundamentals of consumer bankruptcy under Chapters 7 and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code.

506F Chapter 11 Reorganization

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: LAW 506C Not open to students with credit in LAW 506A.

In-depth look at reorganization under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

506G Advanced Chapter 7 Practicum

Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 506E R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.

Provide assistance to the pro se debtor in chapter 7 bankruptcy cases.

506J The Distressed Firm

Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 500M R: Open to Law students or law advanced students.

Legal, ethical, and management issues facing a firm in financial or other distress.

LAW—MSU College of Law

- 507 Business, Securities, and Tax Planning
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 501A or LAW 501B or LAW 501K) and LAW 500M R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 440
Problems of corporations, partnership organization, allocation control, issuance of securities, use of debt, equity finance, and dividends.
- 508A Corporate Counsel Seminar
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500M R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 577
A study of legal issues faced by lawyers with corporate clients on an in-house basis. There will be twelve guests lecturers.
- 508B Corporate Finance
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500M or concurrently R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 380
Principles of accounting, valuation, and the basic financial environment of close corporations and public companies.
- 508C Corporate Income Tax
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 501A or LAW 501B or LAW 501K R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: DCL 465
Federal income tax of corporations and shareholders. Tax consequences of choice of entity. Tax aspects of S-Corporation.
- 508F Corporate Governance and Compliance
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 592b
Survey of issues in corporate governance and compliance.
- 508K International Corporate Governance
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Focus on the broadening scope of corporate stakeholders' involvement in the operations and performance of international companies.
- 508M Corporate Law Colloquium
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 500M R: Open to Law students.
Student presentation of corporate law issues.
- 508N Corporate Law and Finance Seminar
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 500M R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Exploration of complex issues in contemporary law with a focus on issues likely to arise in a sophisticated real-world corporate or transactional practice.
- 509A Analytical Methods for Lawyers - Microeconomics
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 607A
Condensed principles of microeconomics to serve as a primer to law students.
- 509B Analytical Methods for Lawyers - Statistics
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 607B Not open to students with credit in LAW 637E.
Condensed principles of statistics to serve as a primer to law students.
- 511B Employment Discrimination Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 330
Development of individual employee rights, including at-will employees as well as protected employees under NLRA and FLSA.
- 511C Employment Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 522 Not open to students with credit in LAW 511E.
Employment law covering federal legislation and related case law.
- 511D Labor Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 382 Not open to students with credit in LAW 511E.
Exploration of the application of the National Labor Relations Act.
- 511E Labor and Employment Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 511C or LAW 511D.
At-will employment relationship, terms and conditions of employment, and the application of the National Labor Relations Act as amended impacting collective bargaining units.
- 512B International Business Transactions
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 363
This course explores the legal aspects of international finance, and trade using Canadian-United States trade as an example.
- 512E International Trade Regulation
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 368
This course explores international trade regime.
- 512G Strategic International Transactions
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law.
Strategic international business arrangements, including acquisitions, joint ventures, foreign direct investment, project finance, and international equity financing transactions.
- 512K International Commercial Arbitration
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500A and LAW 500B R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Understanding of the international commercial arbitration process and the role of national courts.
- 512M Japanese Legal System
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Overview of the structure of the Japanese legal system.
- 512N International Alternative Dispute Resolution
Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Law and procedure of international alternative dispute resolution, with a focus on alternative dispute resolution in the European Union and its similarities with United States alternative dispute resolution law.
- 514 Insurance Law
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 379
Address the history and function of a variety of types of insurance, issues regarding contract formation, insurance regulation, reinsurance, the insurance claims process, and/or defense and settlement of insurance claims.
- 515 Law and Economics
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 443
An application of economical theories examining formation, structure, process and the economical impact of law and legal institutions.
- 516 Mergers and Acquisitions
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500M R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 505
An overview of issues related to business transactions relating to mergers and acquisitions. This course will also consider the social and economic significance of mergers and acquisitions.
- 517A Mortgage Finance
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 466
Legal issues in the mortgage-banking industry with a focus on residential property.
- 519 Partnership Tax
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 501A or LAW 501B or LAW 501K) and LAW 500M R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: DCL 316
Tax issues associated with form, term, liquidation, transfer and class problems.
- 522 Products Liability
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 514
A study of the sources, development, and limitations of product liability.

- 524A Securities Litigation Seminar
Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500M R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 581
Exploration of securities law from the perspective of a litigation attorney.
- 524B Securities Regulation I
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500M or concurrently R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 428
Regulatory requirements applied to public offers of securities and publicly held companies.
- 525 Torts II
Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500L R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 434
This course surveys specialized torts from workman's compensation to trademark infringement. Students will interview a client and complete a drafting assignment.
- 525B Topics in Tort Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 500R R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Controversies relating to the nature of tort law principles. Scope of liability for harm, causation, damages (e.g. inchoate and future loss) and tort reform.
- 530A Civil Procedure
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: LAW 500A, LAW 500B
Survey of basic civil procedure, with primary emphasis on the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and some discussion of state deviations from the federal model.
- 530B Contracts
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: LAW 500D, LAW 500E
Basic law relating to the formation of a contract.
- 530D Research, Writing and Analysis
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: LAW 500J
Fundamentals of non-electronic legal research and writing through the assignment of problems geared to develop analytical and problem-solving abilities.
- 530E Research, Writing and Analysis: Intellectual Property Perspective
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: LAW 500V
Fundamentals of non-electronic legal research and writing through the assignment of problems geared to develop analytical and problem-solving abilities with a focus on trademark, copyright and patent law.
- 530F Contract Negotiation
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530B R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 591C.
Introduction to the principles of negotiation through simulated exercises.
- 530J Advocacy
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. P: LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: LAW 500K
Drafting an appellate brief and presenting a simulated oral argument.
- 530K Foundations of Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Introduction to the study of law.
- 530N Research, Writing and Analysis: Criminal Law Perspective
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 530D or LAW 530E.
Analysis and problem-solving through legal research and writing in a criminal litigation context.
- 530P Effective Legal Analysis and Process
Fall. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Hands-on activities to help master critical skills.
- 530Q Research, Writing and Analysis: Social Justice Perspectives
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N.
Written projects with a social justice focus.
- 530S Constitutional Law and the Regulatory State
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 500C or LAW 530G.
Constitutional, statutory, and administrative foundations of American government
- 530T Advanced Civil Procedure
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530A R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Augment the fundamentals taught in Civil Procedure.
- 530U First-Year Advanced Topics and Skills
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Additional doctrinal depth in a required topic. Contains significant skills components.
- 532 Administrative Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 300 Not open to students with credit in LAW 810K.
The study of the administrative process and the delegation to administrative agencies of legislative power.
- 533B Copyright Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 375
The history of copyright protect with an emphasis on entertainment law.
- 533E International Intellectual Property
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 526
An overview of copyrights, patents, trademark, and trade secrets under United States law.
- 533F Licensing Intellectual Property
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 516
This course explores the management of an Intellectual Property portfolio to maximize a client's return on their investment in Intellectual Property assets.
- 533G Media Law
Summer. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 301
This course focuses on free press/speech issues and the ethical and professional considerations of journalists.
- 533J Patent Application Preparation
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 533K or concurrently) or (LAW 533V or concurrently) R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 556
Structure and methodology for preparing a universal patent application suitable for filing patents throughout the world.
- 533K Patent Law
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 564
An introduction to patent law and what is patentable.
- 533N Trademark Law and Unfair Competition
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law.
This course addresses current issues and developments such as the constitutional foundations and limitations of trademark protection, domain names and cybersquatting.
- 533R Patent Litigation
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 535
This course covers strategies and procedures pertaining to patent litigation in federal courts.
- 533S Cyber Law/Network Regulations
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law.
Legal policy issues arising from the Internet, with an emphasis on: (1) impact on traditional legal causes of action; (2) government regulation; (3) international aspects and the interplay among United States and foreign jurisdictions.

LAW—MSU College of Law

- 533W Topics in Property Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Current property issues and the public policy issues and underlying jurisprudence that surround them.
- 533Y Trademark Counterfeiting: Legal Approaches to Protecting the Brand
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 533N or LAW 535D) and completion of Tier I writing requirement R: Open to Law students in the MSU College of Law.
Reactive and proactive legal approaches to combatting trademark counterfeiting and brand protection in the U.S. and various global legal frameworks.
- 533Z Intellectual Property and Cultural Protection
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Regulating creativity in an interconnected world through intellectual property rights.
- 535D Intellectual Property Survey
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 533V.
Survey of intellectual property law.
- 535E Capstone Intellectual Property and Communications Law Seminar
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Presentation of scholars' works in progress involving intellectual property and communication law.
- 535F Intellectual Property Practicum
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 535D or LAW 533J or LAW 533K R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Exposure to skills that intellectual property attorneys learn in practice.
- 535G Topics in International Intellectual Property
Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
International intellectual property legal regimes.
- 535J Topics in Comparative Copyright
Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Treatments of copyright law
- 535K Topics in Cyberlaw from an International Perspective
Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
International aspects of cyberlaw
- 535M Topics in European Private Law and Intellectual Property Law
Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Concepts in European private law and intellectual property law.
- 535P Information Privacy and Security Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 533C.
Regulation of information flow with particular attention to statutory and compliance issues.
- 535Q Digital Humanities
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students.
Legal and ethical issues implicated by the digital humanities research and resource-creation, including copyright, contract/licensing, privacy, and other issues.
- 535R Rethinking Intellectual Property in a Technological Age
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students in the MSU College of Law.
Seminar on selected topics in intellectual property.
- 537D E-Discovery
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Law, theory and practice of discovery of electronically stored documents and information.
- 537E Entrepreneurial Lawyering
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Technology and cloud-computing in building a law practice.
- 537J Lawyer Ethics and Regulation in a Technology-Driven World
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 500Q.
Obligations of lawyer's, both individually and as member's of the legal profession, in a technology-driven world.
- 537M Litigation: Data, Theory, Practice, Process
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Analyze data, decision theory, game theory, economic analysis, outcome predictions, to improve litigation strategies.
- 537Q Delivering Legal Services
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Survey of legal service delivery processes.
- 537R Artificial Intelligence and Law
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
How Artificial Intelligence (AI) interacts with law. It considers how lawyers, computer scientists and others can get law and code to work together to regulate interactions among people and computers.
- 537S Automated Vehicles and the Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Legal issues related to automated vehicles including product liability, cybersecurity, privacy, insurance, criminal law and procedure, federal and state regulation, and patents. How discovery and evidentiary presentation at trial may be managed.
- 537T Technology Transactions Skills
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students.
Laws affecting the structure, documentation and completion of technology transactions in contemporary transactional legal practice.
- 537U Evolutionary Analysis and Law
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Basic computer techniques analyzing legal texts to measure similarity, sentiment, and perhaps influence, incorporating into law practice. Elucidating the cultural evolution of the common law.
- 537V Blockchain Technology, Law, and Policy
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Blockchain technology, the laws affecting applications of the technology, and anticipated effects on contemporary legal practice.
- 540A Basic Will Drafting
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 501D R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 391
This course focuses on interviewing and drafting wills. The course also covers basic estate-planning vehicles for clients not subject to federal estate taxes.
- 540B Estate Planning and Drafting Seminar
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: (LAW 501A or LAW 501B) and (LAW 501D and LAW 500G) R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 482
The course focuses on federal estates, gifts, and generation-skipping transfer taxes. This is a hands-on course that requires students to draft wills and trusts.
- 540C Estates and Future Interests Drafting Seminar
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 491
This course focuses on estates and future interests and how they are used in property transfers. There will be several intensive in-class drafting assignment.
- 540D Estate and Gift Taxation
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 381
A study of a descendants' gross estate and the determination of appropriate deductions.

- 541A Child Advocacy
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 446
This course is designed to acquaint future attorneys and social workers with their roles and responsibilities in representing and advocating for children and family as they interact with state government.
- 541B Domestic Violence
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 427
An historical background of Domestic Violence. Focus will be placed on understanding the nature of domestic violence, the prevention of domestic violence, and the survivor and batterer behavior.
- 541C Elder Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 510
Legal needs of elder clients and their families.
- 541D Family Dissolution Law Reform Seminar
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 541E R: Not open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 312
This course explores the discourse of no-fault divorce law and the need to reform. Several proposals will be explored.
- 541E Family Law: Marriage and Divorce
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 504
The study of the substantive requirements of marriage, divorce, allocation of property, alimony, child custody, ante nuptial agreements, and separation agreements.
- 541F Family Law: Child, Family and the State
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 521
Legal issues confronting families including marriage, parenthood, balancing work, domestic violence, adoption, and artificial insemination.
- 541G Immigration Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 353
A survey of United States immigrant law. An emphasis will be placed on policy issues and on issues that an attorney may encounter.
- 541J Integrative Law and Social Work
Fall. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 474
This course covers issues related to child abuse and neglect from a multi-disciplinary perspective.
- 541K Juvenile Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 378
A survey of laws related to juvenile courts. Topics include juvenile delinquency, child neglect, jurisdiction, waivers, arrest, pretrial and trial.
- 541M Matrimonial Practice
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 532
This course focuses on practical skills necessary to develop expertise in handling matrimonial matters from initial client contact through each step of the process.
- 541N Law and Gender
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 386
Theoretical and legal issues associated with gender.
- 541R Topics in Family Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Legally recognized family relationships and their members' rights and responsibility.
- 541S Seminar in Race, Law and American Culture: From Slavery to Post Civil Rights
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
History of race relations in the U.S., with primary reference to the culture and laws affecting African-Americans.
- 541T Immigration Consequences of Criminal Activity
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Immigration consequences of criminal activity.
- 541U Refugee and Asylum Law Seminar
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Refugee and asylum law in the United States.
- 541V Perspectives on U.S. Immigration Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Immigration law and policy from a variety of perspectives, such as historical, social, public policy, economic, human rights, and legal perspectives.
- 541W Racial Justice - Legal and Societal Dimensions of Truth and Reconciliation
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students.
Racial justice in America, and exploring processes of truth and reconciliation that can help bring about the goals of racial healing and transformation.
- 541Y The Law of American Chattel Slavery: Origins and Development
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students in the MSU College of Law.
Origins, development, and legacy of the laws that built and sustained a slave society.
- 545C Constitutional Law of the European Union
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Introduction to the evolution of the European Communities and European Union.
- 545F Introduction to Islamic Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Islamic legal philosophy and jurisprudential systems.
- 545J Political Systems and Human Rights in Central and Eastern Europe
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Political systems in countries where human rights are not respected.
- 545K Halal Food: Introduction of Islamic Laws and Ethics
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Religious foundations of Islamic dietary laws, ethics and customs relating to food generally.
- 545P International Taxation and Tax Treaties
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 501K or LAW 501A or LAW 501B R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Surveys U.S. taxation of U.S. and foreign persons engaged in international activities.
- 548C European Union Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: DCL 447 Not open to students with credit in LAW 579V.
An introduction to legal institutions of the European economy.
- 548E International Environmental Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law.
An introduction to the use of bilateral and multilateral realities and other international mechanisms.
- 548F International Human Rights
Fall. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 418
This course explores human rights and the international legal order, background, concepts, and the future.
- 548G International Sale of Goods
Fall. 2 to 4 credits.
A study of international sale law under the United Nations Convention on contracts.
- 548N Public International Law
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 341
A study of the International legal system, sources, and origins.
- 548Q Transnational Legal Research
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 445
The course is designed to develop a student's skills in legal research, writing, and advocacy in transnational legal research.
- 548Z Topics in International Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Special topics in international law.

LAW—MSU College of Law

- 549C Special Topics in Comparative Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law.
Special topics in comparative law.
- 549D Topics in Comparative Constitutional Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500J and LAW 500K and LAW 500C R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Examination of approaches to free expression in a variety of democratic countries.
- 549E Topics in Comparative Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Special topics in comparative law.
- 549F Comparative Free Expression
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 549D.
Examination of approaches to free expression in a variety of different countries.
- 550A Topics in Conflict of Laws
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 530A R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 550.
Doctrine and policy considerations relevant to choice-of-law determinations. Simulated appellate litigation.
- 551B Constitutional Law Topics: Free Expression
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 554
This course focuses on the theory and history of speech.
- 551D Government Relations and Lobbying Law
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Distinctions among legislative, administrative and grassroots lobbying and the professional norms of lobbyists.
- 551F Free Speech on Campus
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students.
Free speech principles as they apply on the college campus and creating a program for others to learn more about the First Amendment.
- 552 Labor Law Seminar
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 499
This course covers current issues in Labor law, collective bargaining, and labor management relations.
- 558A Bioethics and the Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 339
Legal, ethical, and economic problems generated by biomedical technologies.
- 558B Food and Drug Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 357
This course provides a working knowledge of domestic laws focuses on regulated foods, drugs, cosmetic, biologics/blood and medical devices.
- 558C Health Care Law
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 458
This course surveys the major aspects of substantive health-care law and regulations.
- 558E Managed Care Seminar
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 519
This course focuses on the legal aspects of health care as it relates to financing health care.
- 558J Health Care Fraud and Abuse
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 594
This course cover Federal and State laws that impose criminal and civil penalties on health coverage provisions.
- 558M Special Topics - Health Care Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law.
Legal, medical, and ethical world of assisted reproductive technologies. Concepts of personhood, human reproduction and governmental intervention in reproductive decision making.
- 558N Seminar in Assisted Reproductive Technologies and the Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law.
Legal, medical, and ethical issues surrounding assisted reproductive technologies.
- 558S Biotechnology Law Seminar
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Explore the impacts of biotechnology on legal topics that include intellectual property, business, federal regulations, property, criminal law and evidence, bioethics and international law.
- 565A Animal Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 501
A survey of animal legal issues including property status, zoning and cruelty.
- 565B Wildlife Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 376
This course explores the legal systems impact on wildlife.
- 565C Legal Issues with Energy Development and Wildlife
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Emerging issues in energy law and policy relating to fish and wildlife.
- 566A Environmental Law
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 323
A broad-based study bringing elements of economics, ecology, politics, and philosophy.
- 566B Land Use Planning
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 401
This course covers methods of local government land use. Emphasis will be placed on theories and practices of zoning and eminent domain.
- 566C Natural Resource Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 463
This course explores legal regimes under which public national resources are allocated and managed.
- 566D Water Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 372
This course examines water rights under the riparian doctrine and the prior appropriation system.
- 566N Agricultural Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Regulatory framework of the food and agriculture sector at the federal, state and local levels.
- 566Q Regulating Environmental Risk
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Regulatory responses to environmental and other risks to human life and health.
- 566S Environmental Justice
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
How environmental law and civil rights law can be used to address disparate environmental harms experienced by low-income communities and communities of color.
- 566T Marijuana Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Historical and current legal developments at the state and federal levels relating to the regulation of marijuana.
- 572B State and Local Taxation
Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 356
The course focuses on the requirements of uniformity and equality. The class also addresses other Constitutional limitations on state and local tax.

- 572D Tax Policy Seminar
Fall, Spring. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 517
Tax policy issues arising from federal taxation.
- 572G Nonprofit and Tax-Exempt Organizations
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Examination of the formation, governance, operation and the legal framework of non-profit, tax-exempt organizations.
- 579A Bill of Rights Seminar
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500C and LAW 500N R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 394
This course focuses on the legal and theoretical questions surrounding the Bill of Rights.
- 579B Civil Rights Seminar
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 317
The study of civil rights claims brought through Section 1983 and Bivens actions.
- 579C Constitutional Law Seminar
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 393
An in-depth study of various aspects of Constitutional Law.
- 579D Education Law
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 456
An overview of the legal and history of the American education system, its Constitutional and statutory underpinnings and the tension between public and private, religious, and secular educational systems.
- 579E Election Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 318
A study of election issues.
- 579F Equity
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 333
This course focuses on the history of equity, equity jurisdiction, equitable remedies and contempt powers.
- 579G Federal Jurisdiction
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530A R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: DCL 349
A study of the operation of the federal court system focusing on the Civil Rights Acts.
- 579J Jurisprudence
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 385
A surveys of law and the legal process. This course explores the decision-making process and the social, political, and moral contexts that influence judicial decisions.
- 579K Law and Religion
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. SA: DCL 530
Church/state law with special attention placed on legal doctrines under the Establishment Clause and Free Exercise Clause of the 1st Amendment.
- 579M Legislative Drafting
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 334
History and process of legislative drafting. Legislative procedure. Language, structure, and grammar of legislation.
- 579P Legislation
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 329
This course explores different theories of the legal process and decision making.
- 579R Law and Interpretation
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law.
Judicial interpretation under the constitution, statutes and common law.
- 579S Topics in Jurisprudence
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Special topics in jurisprudence.
- 579U Topics in Constitutional Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Comprehensive review and discussion of original writings relevant to the nation's founding and framing of the Constitution.
- 579W Rule of Law and Jurisprudence
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Focus on rule of law concepts. Examines the judicial decision-making process.
- 579X Constitutional Litigation
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Examination of the intricacies of litigation by individuals seeking to vindicate federal constitutional rights.
- 579Y Capital Punishment
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Federal constitutional law regulation of capital punishment.
- 586 Advanced Legal Research
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 509
Internet research. Contrasting form, speed, cost, and accuracy students learn to integrate sources for most complete and economic research project.
- 587B Civil Trial Advocacy I
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. RB: LAW 500P R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 472 Not open to students with credit in LAW 623B or LAW 623C or LAW 623D or LAW 623E or LAW 623F or LAW 623M or LAW 623N.
Pre-trial preparation training.
- 587E Mediation Advocacy and Civil Facilitative Mediator Training
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 587D.
Exposure to various types of mediation and duties of a mediator, mediation agreements, and the role of the attorney in mediation. Meets the civil facilitative mediator training requirements as described by the Michigan State Court Administrative Office.
- 587F Mediation Advocacy and Domestic Relations Mediator Training
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Domestic relations mediation practice and advocacy.
- 590B Evidence Seminar
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500P R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 498
This course focuses on the Federal Rules of Evidence. This is a hand-on course that requires extensive role-play exercises.
- 591A Client Counseling and Interviewing
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530A and LAW 500P R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 450 Not open to students with credit in LAW 623B or LAW 623C or LAW 623D or LAW 623E or LAW 623F or LAW 623M or LAW 623N.
Problem-solving approaches to fundamental counseling skills.
- 591C Negotiation
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 520
An introduction to the principles of negotiations. Multiple mock negotiations are required.
- 592 Law Practice Management
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 309
An overview of issues involved with managing a law office.

LAW—MSU College of Law

- 593A Michigan Civil Procedure
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 438
A survey of Michigan civil procedure at the trial and appellate levels.
- 593B Commercial Transactions Seminar
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 501C and LAW 501E R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 490
A study of commercial financing from the point-of-view of a practitioner.
- 593C Mortgages
Summer. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500G R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 406
This course covers various aspects of the law of suretyship, real property security, land mortgages, land contracts, rights to rent and Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.
- 593D Remedies
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500D R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 423
Overview of main types of remedies available in the American legal system following a determination of liability for violation of contract, tort, property or constitutional law. Covers monetary damages, equitable relief, and examines the implications of choosing particular remedies.
- 593F Topics in Commercial Transactions
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Special topics in commercial transactions.
- 593G Consumer Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500D and LAW 500E and LAW 500G and LAW 500R R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: DCL 365
Special legal requirements for consumer transactions.
- 594A Contract Drafting
Fall. 1 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530B R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 370
A study of common pit falls in contract drafting and how to avoid them through proper drafting.
- 594B Contract Theory Seminar
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500D and LAW 500E R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 600
Explore the theoretical and jurisprudential basis for enforcement of promises. Readings and discussions will address historical and anthropological conceptions of contract, comparative analyses of the civil and common law of contracts and gift promises, theoretical justifications for state enforcement of promises and modern challenges to contract doctrines and principles such as freedom of contracts.
- 595 No-Fault Insurance Law
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 319
This course is an in-depth study of Michigan's no-fault law and policy.
- 600C Michigan Statutory Personal Injury Practice
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students and open to master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 525.
Key statutory provisions necessary to analyze Michigan personal injury cases.
- 600J Legal Analysis and Writing
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Prepare students to be successful on the bar exam by covering core bar topics in depth, practice answering MBE questions and writing in MEE format.
- 601 Construction Law
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 314
A survey of legal issues in the construction industry.
- 603B Housing Law and the Public Interest
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Focus on laws created in response to economic, racial and immigration issues, and housing.
- 604 Bar Exam Success Fundamentals
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students in the Law Major.
Development of bar examination study and test taking skills for multiple choice, essay, and multi state performance exams.
- 605A Hospitality Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 500R and LAW 530B R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Lodging, food and alcohol legal issues.
- 609 Sports Law
Fall, Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 351
This course explores the legal structure of and problems surrounding amateur and professional sports leagues and associations.
- 610 Workers' Compensation
Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 389
This course explores the principles Michigan Workers' Compensation.
- 616B Criminal Procedure: Investigation
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 303
Power and limitations of gathering evidence before trial, post conviction power, and pretrial detentions.
- 616C Criminal Procedure: Adjudication
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 580
Issues associated with the criminal trial procedure in federal courts.
- 616E Federal Investigation and Prosecution
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 616B R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Introduction to federal criminal investigation, application of evidence obtained from a federal prosecution investigation.
- 617A Criminal Trial Advocacy I - Pretrial
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 500F R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 470 Not open to students with credit in LAW 623B or LAW 623C or LAW 623D or LAW 623E or LAW 623F or LAW 623M or LAW 623N.
Criminal procedure including case initiation, indictment, and pretrial motions.
- 617C Criminal Trial Advocacy III Post Conviction Remedies
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 433
This course focuses on representation issues raised during critical stages of sentencing.
- 617E Wrongful Convictions Seminar
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. RB: LAW 616B and LAW 616C R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
The causes, recurring features, and consequences of wrongful convictions for the criminal justice system, with a focus on the unique role of the prosecutor.
- 618 Topics In Criminal Law
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Functions and performance of the contemporary civil and criminal jury system.
- 619 Courts and Social Policy Seminar
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 593
This course examines the policy-making function of courts.
- 623B Trial Practice Institute: Pretrial I
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 506
Training in pre-trial practice.
- 623C Trial Practice Institute-Pretrial II
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law.
Fundamentals of persuasion and advocacy.
- 623D Trial Practice Institute - Trial I
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 534
Training in trial practice.

- 623E Trial Practice Institute: Trial II
Spring. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law.
Study and practice of a criminal case.
- 623F Trial Practice Institute: Expert and Scientific Evidence
Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: DCL 543 Not open to students with credit in LAW 587B or LAW 587C or LAW 617A or LAW 617B or LAW 591A or LAW 590A.
Forensic science and evidence.
- 623J Trial Practice Institute: Trial Practicum
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Foundation for trial work.
- 623M TPI: Trial Presentation
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 623B R: Open to Law students. SA: LAW 623G, LAW 623A Not open to students with credit in LAW 590A or LAW 587B or LAW 591A or LAW 617A.
Efficient use of courtroom technology and the presentation of electronic evidence, effective verbal and nonverbal communication skills, and proper courtroom etiquette and decorum during the various stages of litigation.
- 623N TPI:Scientific: Evidence and Legal Technology
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 590A or LAW 587B or LAW 617A or LAW 591A.
Maximization of technology in the delivery of legal services; use of experts during litigation, the e-discovery process, and new legal delivery methods.
- 624 Directed Study
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 4 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 690
Students may receive up to 4 credits for research and writing in areas of interest. Interested students must obtain a full-time faculty member for sponsorship.
- 624A Directed Study - Upper Level Writing Requirement
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 4 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Research and writing in areas of interest. Interested students must obtain a full-time faculty member for sponsorship.
- 625A Law Externship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 2 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 590
Hands-on experience that provides students with practical legal experience and skills.
- 625B Law Externship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 6 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 591
Hand-on experience that provides students with practical legal experience and skills.
- 625C Law Externship
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 12 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 12 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Hands-on experience with practical legal skills.
- 625D Law Externship Seminar
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Classroom component for students participating in law externships.
- 626C King Scholar Jurisprudence
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 359
This course is limited to students in the King Scholar Program. It covers the study of current schools of thought from legal positivism to modern legal theories.
- 626D King Scholar Seminar
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 4 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 626C R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. SA: DCL 404
Current strands of classical and modern philosophy of law.
- 627A Moot Court Competition
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500J and LAW 500K R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 700
This is an intramural Moot Court Competition open to all students after their first year. Students must elect this option during their third semester.
- 627K Moot Court Competition Seminar
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 627A or LAW 627C.
Appellate advocacy preparation.
- 627N Negotiation Competition
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J and LAW 530F R: Open to Law students.
Mechanics of negotiation
- 627P Arbitration Competition
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and (LAW 530J and LAW 623J) R: Open to Law students.
Mechanics of arbitration
- 627Q Appellate Competition
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students.
Mechanics of appellate practice
- 627R Trial Competition
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students.
Mechanics of trial practice.
- 628 Law Review
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: ( LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 790
This course is by invitation only. Completion of RWA and Advocacy, and a satisfactory GPA is required to enter the writing competition.
- 629A International Law Review
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 550
A student may participate by entering the writing competition upon satisfactory completion by day students of two full semesters, or evening students of three full semesters.
- 629C Animal and Natural Resource Law Review
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Preparation of publications in animal law and natural resource law.
- 629D Journal of Business and Securities Law Review
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 530N or LAW 530Q or LAW 530D or LAW 530E) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Provides a wide scope of topics on legal business issues such as corporate litigation, commercial transactions, employment, ecommerce, securities regulation, and any other topic focusing on the intersection of law and business.
- 630C Tax Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 476
Federal, state and local tax concerns. Representation of clients before the IRS and Tax Court.

LAW—MSU College of Law

- 630D Tax Clinic II
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 630C R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 515
Counseling and representing low-income and English as a second language in tax controversies before the tax tribunal and IRS agents.
- 630K Street Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 4 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 500C and LAW 500N and LAW 500F R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Collaboration with a local school district to expose high school students to the law and legal concepts.
- 630P Plea and Sentencing Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: (LAW 500F and LAW 500K) and (LAW 500J or LAW 500V) R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Assist State Appellate Defender's Office with representation of indigent prisoners having issues relating to their sentencing or guilty pleas.
- 630Q Plea and Sentencing Clinic II
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 6 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 630P R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Enhancement of skills needed to assist State Appellate Defender's Office with representation of indigent prisoners having issues relating to their sentencing or guilty pleas.
- 630R Immigration Law Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Client representation and systemic advocacy for vulnerable populations that are otherwise unable to obtain legal representation.
- 630S Immigration Law Clinic II
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 630R R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Client representation and systemic advocacy for vulnerable populations that are otherwise unable to obtain legal representation.
- 630T Great Lakes First Amendment Law Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q or LAW 804) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Provide free legal advice to parties whose free speech rights have been challenged.
- 630V Housing Law Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Housing law issues that include landlord-tenant law, foreclosures, fair housing, affordable housing, homeownership, and homelessness.
- 630W Housing Law Clinic II
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 630V R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Continued representation conducted in Housing Clinic I, and more sophisticated client representation in landlord-tenant law, foreclosures, fair housing, affordable housing, homeownership, and homelessness.
- 630X Civil Rights Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530J or LAW 530N R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Assist in litigation of civil rights cases in federal District Court for prisoners incarcerated in Michigan.
- 630Z Civil Rights Clinic II
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 630X R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
In-depth assistance in litigation of civil rights cases in federal District Court for prisoners incarcerated in Michigan.
- 631D Conflict Resolution Clinic I
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Theory, skills and professionalism issues associated with mediation and conflict resolution.
- 631E Conflict Resolution Clinic II
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N) and (LAW 530J and LAW 631D) R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Theory, skills and professionalism issues associated with mediation and conflict resolution.
- 631F Chance at Childhood Clinic I
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Child advocacy
- 631J Indian Law Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530J) and (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530Q or LAW 530N) R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 630F.
Legal matters for tribes; develop policy papers for tribal governments and organizations.
- 631K Indian Law Clinic II
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 631J R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 630G.
Continuation of Law 631J.
- 631M Food Law Clinic I
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530J) and (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530Q or LAW 530N) R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 566P.
Legal services to nonprofits and low-income individuals working in food and agriculture.
- 631P Human Trafficking Civil Litigation Clinic I
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students or master of laws students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Clinic course on human trafficking litigation. Informal fact investigation, evidence gathering, conducting interviews, drafting memos on relevant legal issues and draft pleadings.
- 631R Animal Welfare Clinic I
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J R: Open to Law students.
Animal human legal conflicts through direct client representation and systemic advocacy. Engage in litigation, regulatory comments, policy and legislative drafting, and creation of education materials.
- 631S Animal Welfare Clinic II
Fall, Spring. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 631R R: Open to Law students.
Animal human legal conflicts through direct client representation and systemic advocacy. Litigation, regulatory comments, policy and legislative drafting, and creation of education materials.
- 631T Intellectual Property and Entrepreneurial Law Clinic I
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. P: (LAW 530D or LAW 530E or LAW 530N or LAW 530Q) and LAW 530J and (LAW 535D or concurrently) R: Open to Law students.
Client representation and systemic advocacy related to intellectual property and entrepreneurial business law. Activities may include client counseling, research, transactional analysis, litigation, regulatory comments, educational materials, and outreach.
- 631U Intellectual Property and Entrepreneurial Law Clinic II
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. P: LAW 631T R: Open to Law students.
Client representation and systemic advocacy related to intellectual property and entrepreneurial business law. Activities may include client counseling, research, transactional analysis, litigation, regulatory comments, educational materials, and outreach.
- 635A Advanced Topics in American Indian Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 4 credits. A student may earn a maximum of 10 credits in all enrollments for this course. P: LAW 635B R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 563
Current legal issues of federal and American Indian law.

- 635B Federal Law and Indian Tribes
Fall, 2 to 4 credits. R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 486
This course explores the law and policy of the United States regarding Indian Tribes and their citizens.
- 635D American Indian Children and the Law
Fall of even years. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Focus on American Indian children and the law including the implementation, interpretation and understanding of the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA).
- 635E Tribal Law
Spring of odd years. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Survey of the laws that tribes enact to govern themselves.
- 635F Gaming Law
Fall of odd years. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Tribal, federal, and state regulation of Indian gaming activities. Implementation and evolution of various provisions of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA).
- 635G Global Perspectives on Indigenous Peoples
Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students.
History, development, structure, content and efficacy of international human rights law and norms that apply to indigenous peoples.
- 636 American Legal History Seminar
Fall. 2 to 4 credits. P: LAW 500C R: Open to students in the MSU College of Law. SA: DCL 552
A study of the tension between the rights of the individual and the government.
- 637E Quantitative Analysis for Lawyers
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 509B.
Survey topics relevant to quantitative information.
- 804 Common Law Research, Writing and Advocacy
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to master's of law students in the American Legal System major.
Research, writing and advocacy for foreign lawyers.
- 804A Legal English I for Foreign Lawyers
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to master's of law students.
For foreign lawyers whose English language skills require development.
- 804D Reading Comprehension Skills for Foreign Lawyers
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to master's of law students.
Use of reading and writing to aid foreign trained lawyers to explore ideas, to challenge opinions, and to think critically.
- 805 Civil Litigation Practice and Procedure for Foreign Lawyers
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to master's of law students in the American Legal System major. Not open to students with credit in LAW 548K.
Litigation process in the United States.
- 805A Negotiation for Foreign Educated Lawyers
Fall, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students.
Fundamental concepts in negotiation theory.
- 806A American Constitutional Law
Fall, Spring, Summer. 1 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 500C or LAW 500N.
Survey of the US Constitution's approach to governmental structure and individual rights.
- 807A Foundations of Law and Legal Research
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits.
Introduction to the American legal system with focus on legal research and writing needs of international scholars and non-lawyers.
- 810A Food Regulation in the United States
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 811.
Food law and regulation in the United States.
- 810B Food Regulation in the European Union
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 812.
Food law and regulation in the European Union.
- 810C Food Regulation in Canada
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 814.
Food law and regulation in Canada.
- 810D International Food Laws and Regulations
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 810.
Systems of food regulation practiced in different regions of the world.
- 810E Animal Health, World Trade, and Food Safety
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 817.
The global animal situation and its relationship to international trade in animals and animal products.
- 810F International Food Standards – FAO and WHO
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 816.
History, development and workings of the Codex Alimentarius Commission in formulating and harmonizing food standards and ensuring their global implementation; content and legal application of Codex Alimentarius.
- 810G Food Regulation in Latin America
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 813.
Food law and regulation in Latin America.
- 810J Food Regulation in Asia
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master's of law students. Not open to students with credit in ANR 490 or FSC 815.
Food law and regulation in Asia.
- 810K Administrative Law: Focus on Food Safety and Labeling
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students. Not open to students with credit in LAW 532.
Administrative law influencing the development of law, rules, and policies governing the regulation of food and food products in the United States.
- 810M Regulation of Agricultural Production and Marketing
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Laws and regulations relevant to agricultural production and food distribution.
- 810N Survey of Intellectual Property in Agriculture
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Survey of intellectual property concepts important in the agriculture industry.
- 810P Biotechnology Law and Food Products
Fall, Spring, Summer. 0 to 4 credits. R: Open to Law students or master's of law students or law lifelong students or law non degree students.
Introduction to biotechnology-created foods and the impact of public perception on biotechnology agriculture and the transgenic animals industry.
- 810S Food Law Current Issues Seminar
On Demand. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master of laws students.
Analyze international, transnational, and national food law and policy. Emphasis on cutting-edge and controversial aspects of food law and policy.
- 810T Advertising Law - Food Focus
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to master of laws students.
Provide broad introduction and practical detail, to a working understanding of the issues involved in the various laws, regulations and other principles applicable to the advertising of food in the U.S.
- 810U Regulatory Leadership in Food Law
Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.
Introduction to regulatory affairs through the regulation of food.

LAW—MSU College of Law

810V FSMA FSVP Rule

Fall, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.

Legal perspective of FDA's Foreign Supplier Verification Program of the Food Safety Modernization Act.

810W FSMA Preventive Controls Rule

Fall, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.

Legal perspective of FDA's Preventive Controls for Human Food Rule of the Food Safety Modernization Act.

810X FSMA Produce Safety Rule

Fall, Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.

Legal perspective of FDA's Produce Safety Rule of the Food Safety Modernization Act.

810Y Wine, Beer, and Spirits Laws and Regulations

Spring of even years. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to Law students or law advanced students or law lifelong students or law non-degree students.

Laws, regulations, and policies that govern alcoholic beverages in the United States.

810Z Food Law: Preventing Fakes and Counterfeits

Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students.

Various ways that entrepreneurial criminals sell counterfeit food in both the illicit and legitimate supply chains. What laws exist to prevent this. What proactive steps lawyers and brand owners can take to protect their food products.

811A Food Law: Africa and Middle East

Fall. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students.

How food laws and regulations are used to ensure a safe and quality food supply. Influence regional and international trade. Impact human health across Africa and the Middle East.

811B Special Topics in Global Food Law

Summer of odd years. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students.

Emerging, controversial and general developments in national and international food law and policy.

811C Fundamentals of Food Science and Safety for Lawyers

Spring. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students in the MSU College of Law or in the Global Food Law Major.

Fundamentals of food science and safety and their impact on food laws and regulations, and risk to manufacturers.

811D A Survey of Hemp: Uses, Issues, and Perceptions

Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students in the MSU College of Law or in the Global Food Law Major.

Overview of the laws and regulations related to hemp at the state and federal levels.

811E Drafting, Amending, and Updating Food Laws: Government, Industry, and Consumer Inputs

Summer. 0 to 6 credits. R: Open to law advanced students in the MSU College of Law or in the Global Food Law Major.

Analysis of the steps required to draft, amend and update food laws and regulations from a global perspective.